b. Smart 911 – John Mehling, Captain, Fishers Fire Department

The City of Fishers utilizes Smart 911, a free information sharing app to view emergency information for all residents of the city, allowing emergency responders the ability to have valuable information at their fingertips as they are en route to your emergency. This system replaces the previous Special Needs Registry. To register, click here.

Additional questions? Contact Captain Mehling at (317) 595-3208 or mehlingj@fishers.in.us

2. Committee Updates

a. Accessibility & Transportation – Stacey Oldham - nothing specific to report but activities are underway to report later

i. Fishers 150th Anniversary Time Capsule

Stacey is looking for ideas on what the disability community can contribute to the time capsule. What does disability look like now and in the future? Megan Vukusich will check on the size of the time capsule.

b. Housing – Wilbur Sutton – Wilbur is serving on the Hamilton County Housing Collaborative. They are looking at other cities on how they deal with housing and collecting resources.

c. Employment – Chrissy Pogue and Michelle Steltz

i. October Disability Employment Awareness Month

Hosting a reverse job fair October 7th. The event is being finalized and instructions on how to register will be shared through social media and other avenues. They are looking for food donations for the employers. Approximately 20 employers/20 job seekers. They would also like to host a morning session in March. The employers need to be in Fishers but job seekers do not have to be from Fishers. They are also looking at restarting the business network group.

d. Community Supports & Services – Kelly Hartman

- i. Indiana State Transition Plan will become effective on March 17, 2023 and will impact all services.
- ii. The State Legislative session is a budget session, a lot of issues coming up in session. Get involved and advocate!
- iii. Outside The box – fundraiser September 16th at The LUME, www.otbonline.org

e. Recreation/Arts & Culture – Shelby Slowik - Conner Prairie will partner with Fishers Arts Council again in March to host an arts event on a Friday evening – date TBD. She also reminded everyone that Conner Prairie has sensory friendly hours, quiet spaces available, the 2nd Tuesday of each month, 10am-12pm. The Apple Store is opening this weekend – 9/9-9/11

f. Networking/Social Opportunities – Darcy Keith – Darcy shared some activities happening with the Aktion Club and Thrive. She normally posts events on her Facebook page. Megan Vukusich reminded the committee that events can be submitted to the Fishers Community Calendar. Find the link to the calendar, here. There is a new subcommittee member. Looking to connect Best Buddies with Thrive.

g. Update from staff on gathering outside of scheduled committee meetings – Megan Vukusich Subcommittee meetings with 2 or more people need noticed 48 hours prior to meeting. Give Megan or Ross notice.
